April 2 and 3, 2027 -27th Annual BSP Conference

Holiday Inn, Morgantown, 6170 Morgantown Drive, Morgantown, PA

610-286-3000

https://www.ihg.com/

Scheduled Presentations:

Friday Evening:

Through beautiful "up close and personal" photographs from her own backyard and bluebird trails, Nancy Fraim's presentation, For the Love of Bluebirds, takes you into the fascinating world of these beloved songbirds.

Saturday:

A representative of the Tri State Bird Rescue and Research in Delaware will talk about their rescue activities and research. This is their website: www.tristatebird.org

Ashley Kennedy, Entomologist, will be giving a presentation of her research (University of .Delaware) on what bluebirds eat and why it is important to plant native plants.

Bracken Brown, Biologist with the Hawk Mountain Sanctuary will talk about their grant -funded programs to help the cavity nesters and threatened American Kestrels and Barn Owls to multiply and thrive.

A special mailing, including registration and itinerary will be sent to all active BSP members in early 2027. More information will also be available on the BSP website: www.thebsp.org closer to the event.

Conference Co-Chairs: Nancy Fraim 610-873-7454 nancyfraim@comcast.net and Nancy Putt 717-712-3951 bluebirds@pa.net